

Aliberto's Mexican Food

Enjoy tacos, burritos, tostadas, pollo asada (grilled chicken), machaca (shredded beef) and more. Breakfast includes huevos rancheros, steak ranchero, Spanish omelet, chorizo burrito, etc.

263 W. University Dr., (480) 834-2259

Café Azul (at the Marriott)

Enjoy Mediterranean cuisine with a Spanish flair in an intimate, contemporary setting. The restaurant, which includes a full bar, is classy enough to complement performances at Mesa Arts Center yet casual enough to drop by anytime for breakfast, lunch or dinner.

200 N. Centennial Way, (480) 464-5038
www.phoenixmarriottmesa.com

Café Michelle

Enjoy sandwiches, salads, soups, bagels, fried rice, and teriyaki chicken bowls, all made with fresh, healthy ingredients. Café Michelle also has many snacks, greeting cards, etc.

20 E. Main St., (480) 969-3758

Café on Macdonald

The public is welcome to visit this café inside of the Mesa Active Adult Center (formerly Mesa Senior Center) serving specialty coffees, tea, juices, soda, muffins, bagels, danishes, candy, popcorn and more.

247 N. Macdonald St., (480) 964-9014
www.EVSeniorServices.org

Cellar Pub (at Sun Devil Liquor)

Beneath Sun Devil Liquor is an actual wine cellar that doubles as a classy pub. Patrons of the Cellar Pub, including many regulars, enjoy beer, fine wine, and cheese platters. A kitchen will soon be added, allowing the Cellar Pub to serve delicious light fare.

235 N. Country Club Dr., (480) 834-5050
www.SDLiquors.com

Check for recent updates on dining at
www.DowntownMesa.com

Centennial Java (at the Marriott)

This bar in the Marriott lobby offers Starbucks Coffee, danishes, muffins, etc., plus light fare and items from the Café Azul menu (see above).

200 N. Centennial Way, (480) 464-5038
www.phoenixmarriottmesa.com

Cucina Di Vita

Find unique Pannini and Signature Sandwiches coupled with hearty soups and salads in a quaint and comfortable atmosphere. In addition Cucina di Vita serves a European style breakfast, offers daily lunch specials, delivery, take out, free WiFi and catering services.

142 W. Main St., (480) 834-3898
www.cucinadivita.com

Dairy Queen

Enjoy soft-serve cones, blizzards, sundaes, ice cream cakes, hot dogs, BBQ sandwiches and more at Mesa's first Dairy Queen, which opened in 1948.

33 S. Country Club Dr., (480) 964-9551

de la Cruz Bistro

Casual yet elegant, de la Cruz Bistro features white linen dinners with steak, lobster, fillet mignon, salmon and the like, along with beer and wine. Lunch includes soups, sandwiches, salads, pasta, etc. It's the perfect place to enjoy food and drinks before or after performances at the nearby Mesa Arts Center.

10 W. Main St., (480) 258-6942

Diamond's Sports Grille

The new owner of this bar/restaurant (formerly Sluggo's) has brought back many classic items patrons enjoyed decades ago such as the Friday Night Fish Fry, Spinach Dips, Seafood Entrée, Chicken Alfredo and Mozzarella Steaks. There are also new plasma TVs for watching all your favorite sports, year-round!

161 N. Centennial Way, (480) 844-3888

El Charro Restaurant & Cocktail Lounge

Family owned for more than 70 years, El Charro serves traditional Mexican dishes for lunch and dinner. Tortillas made fresh daily. Lounge with a full bar.

105 N. Country Club Dr., (480) 964-1851

George's Gyros

Greek and Italian food – fast! Enjoy Gyro sandwiches, pita pizzas, spaghetti, ravioli, chicken parmigiana, etc., plus many American favorites. The bar serves beer, wine and liquor.

205 N. Country Club Dr., (480) 890-1325

Grandma's Kitchen

Enjoy homemade quiche, meatloaf, biscuits and gravy, soups, hot and deli sandwiches, and more. Breakfast includes waffles, omelets and such. For dessert it's homemade cobbler, ice cream or yogurt. Grandma's has a special play area for children.

19 N. Robson St., (480) 969-7219

il Vinaio (formerly The Valley Eatery)

Formerly The Valley Eatery, this newly remodeled restaurant continues to serve traditional American breakfasts and lunches, from omelets and waffles to burgers and meatloaf. In the evening, linens come out for the new dinner menu featuring pasta, ribeye, chicken, pork and more. il Vinaio, which means "the wine merchant," now offers boutique wines and microbrews as well.

270 W. Main St., (480) 649-6476
www.ilvinaio.com

Inside The Bungalow

Relax in this turn-of-the-century house with salads, sandwiches, fruit smoothies, yogurt parfaits and more, many of which are made with organic ingredients. Enjoy specialty coffees and teas too. They also have studios for yoga, tai chi and massage.

48 N. Robson St., (480) 844-2353
www.INSIDETHEBUNGALOW.com

Jack-In-The-Box Restaurant

This friendly restaurant serves traditional favorites such as burgers, chicken sandwiches, Mexican food and salads. Drive-thru, walk-up and outdoor seating.

68 E. Main St., (480) 649-8204
www.JackInTheBox.com

Kirk's Sports Grill

Savor the tastes of Kirk's classic cheeseburger, chef salad or spaghetti and meatballs. They also serve a delicious variety of pastas, sandwiches, wraps, soups, smoked chicken wings and more. The bar serves a long list of beers, awesome Margaritas and more.

260 W. Main St., (480) 833-4240
www.kirkssportsgrill.com

Mangos Mexican Café & Bakery

Enjoy authentic tacos, tamales, enchiladas, burritos and other "Comida Norteña" (food of Northern Mexico). Menudo and breakfast burritos too.

44 W. Main St., (480) 464-5700

Micky's Hot Dogs

Enjoy "Ricos Hot Dogs" along with tacos, quesadillas, tortas, burritos, breakfast burritos, and much more.

108 W. Broadway Rd., (480) 668-7777

Nunthaporn's Thai Cuisine

This new restaurant has brought the taste of Thailand to downtown Mesa! Enjoy a wide range of authentic traditional cuisine including chicken, duck, pork, beef, seafood and vegetable dishes with rice, noodles, tofu, pineapple, cashews, curry, coconut milk and the like. Great appetizers, soups and salads too! Open for lunch and dinner. Delivery available.

17 W. Main St., (480) 649-6140
www.NunthapornThai.com

Pete's Fish & Chips

As the first fast food restaurant in Mesa, Pete's has been family owned and operated since 1947. Specialties include fish and chips, shrimp, scallops and oysters. Traditional fast food also served.

22 S. Mesa Dr., (480) 964-7242
www.petesfishandchips.com

Continued on other side...

*...Continued
from other side*

Pier de Orleans

Authentic New Orleans cooking with a large selection of seafood, steaks, Cajun dishes, chicken, made-from-scratch soups, and oysters on the half-shell. Cocktail lounge with a full bar.
61 E. University Dr., (480) 844-7437
www.PierDeOrleans.com

Queen's Pizzeria

Enjoy gourmet pizza along with sandwiches, salads, bagels, coffee and much more for lunch and dinner. Everything is served fast yet is handmade without sacrificing quality. Delivery available.
125 W. Main St., (480) 964-1609

Salsita Mexican Food

Tacos, burritos, tortas, mariscos (seafood), sopes and other real Mexican fast food made-to-order.
311 W. Main St., (480) 610-1234

Sonic Drive-In

Step back in time to the 50s with carhop service. Specializing in fresh homemade onion rings, limeade, and cooked-to-order hamburgers.
235 W. University Dr., (480) 649-7930
www.SonicDriveIn.com

Subway

Subway's classic hot/cold subs include 8 with under 6 grams of fat (Veggie Deluxe, Ham, Turkey Breast, Turkey Breast & Ham, Roast Beef, Oven Roasted Chicken Breast, Subway Club, Sweet Onion Chicken Teriyaki). Also enjoy Subway's Fresh Toasted sandwiches, and more.
161 W. Main St., (480) 644-9590
www.Subway.com

Sugar Shack

Stop by for a sweet treat, coffee, cappuccino, or light lunch. Open at 6 a.m.
12 N. Center St., 835-2246

Sweet Cakes Café

Enjoy gourmet sandwiches and soups, and a variety of fresh baked cookies, voted Best in the Valley by Get Out magazine. Also enjoy homemade cinnamon rolls, pies, and yogurt. The new Cinnamon Suite is ideal for private receptions, meetings, parties, etc.
21 W. Main St., 461-9529

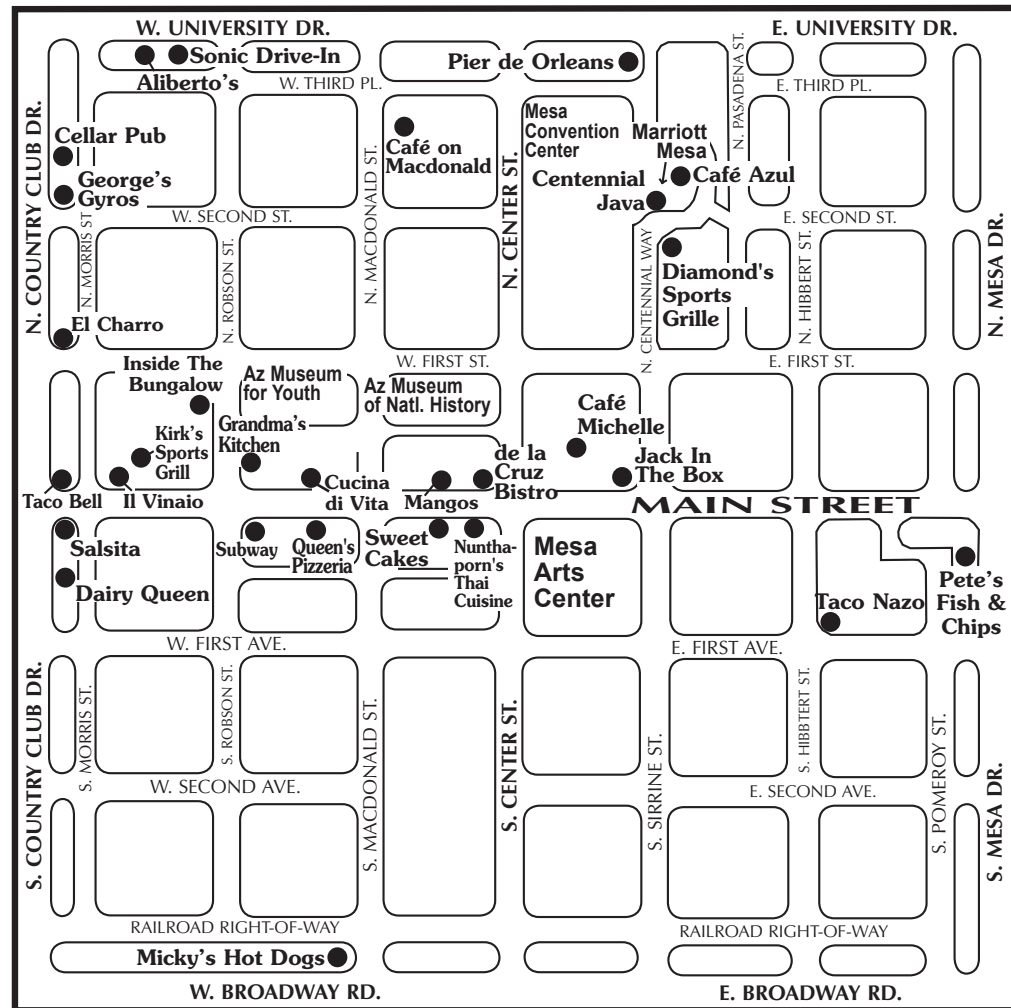

Taco Bell

Make a run for the border where tasty Mexican food is served fast. Tacos, burritos, tostadas, gorditas, nachos, quesadillas...they have it all!
310 W. Main St., (480) 964-2181. www.TacoBell.com

Taco Nazo

Enjoy Mexican style tortas, tacos, burritos, and much more.
204 E First Ave., (480) 969-5494

THIS GUIDE UPDATED: 1/10
Published by:
Downtown Mesa Association
58 W. Main St., Mesa, AZ 85201
(480) 890-2613
www.DowntownMesa.com

DOWNTOWN DINING

Downtown Mesa
a Square Mile of Unique Style